SENATE PASSES TAX EXEMPTION

Three Dissenting Votes After Financial Status of Railroad is Set Forth

With only three dissenting votes House Bill 345, relating to the exemption of the Hilo Railroad from taxa tion for a period of three years, pass ed third reading in the senate vesterday. Those who voted against the measure were Senators Coke, Robinson and Metzger.

A communication was read from a pany, asking that the present period ter of exemption be extended thus giv ing the company five years' grace from aying taxes. It was explained that the company now is being reorganized. and that this reorganization will be helped if the company is not taxed during the next five years. Metzger t prosed the measure on the ground that its passage would derrive the county of Hawaii from certain reve

Senator Castle moved that the bill pass third reading, seconded by Senator Wirtz. Senator Metzger, referring to the communication from the committee of bondholders, said that the legislature was up against a pret ty big bunch of men. Senator Wirtz winted to know if Senator Metzger was insinuating something, and to whom it was directed. The latter senator added that perhaps the committee was looking for anything in the way of charity legislation that might assist the company.

"It's not right," added Senator Metzger. "They come here three years ahead of time and want us to give them five years exemption from taxa-

Senator Coke wanted to know why the bill could not be put over until the next legislature. Senstor Rice said that if the legislature passed the bill now it would be definite and would assist in the reorganization of the Hilo

As far as the senate is concerned the measure is ready for the governor.

> Representative J. H. Coney's bill to regulate the use and operation of vehicles upon the highways and elsewhere in the territory went to a sudden death in the senate yesterday aft ernoon, following a motion by Senator Rice to table the measure. Senator Rice explained that, while undoubtedly there are many good features in the bill, it came to the house too late for adequate consideration. On the other hand, he added, there have been complaints against the bill from residents of the other islands. He also pointed out that the passage of the bill would decrease county revenues.

Along with the many phases of the much talked of "Home Buying" campaigns which, as never before, are constantly being brought to the notice of the public, there comes the following issue which seems worthy of comment:

House bill 314, relating to payment

House bill 302, relating to child

House bill 70, relating to a closed

House bill 321, providing for egulation of automobiles.

The first questions which automatically present themselves to the thinking merchant in this regard are probably: "Why do the people buy away from home-and how do they get the idea that their wants can be fulfilled!"

THE ANSWER IS SIMPLE ENOUGH!

The houses which are in competition with you local merchants are "right on the job."

THEY ADVERTISE EXTENSIVELY.

It is their source of business livelihood. It is the very essence of their existence-and in this regard, bear in mind the fact that it is absolutely necessary to do this in a very much more expensive manner, in order to reach YOUR customers, than it would be for you to present your advertising to them. Therefore, it would seem reasonable to conclude that if your business is suffering from the inroads made upon it by "catalogue houses," you are not entirely blameless:

The People Must Know.

The buying public wants to be informed as to what is being accomplished in mercantile ways, what is being worn, what is being most successfully used for this or that.

THAT IS WHAT ADVERTISING IS FOR,

to inform the patrons of every line of business as to what you have to offer, in short-

They Want Store-News

and you may rest assured that if you are not getting what you consider your due share of business, it is principally because some other fellow is telling them what they want to know-and as a consequence they are reciprocating his interest in their desires by trading with

And-in passing, this same principle may be applied to local competition as well as to that of the catalogue houses.

The Business Exists—It's Simply Up To You To Go After It -And You'll Get It.

· There is no room for further argument; there is a certain amount of business going out of this city that rightfully should belong to you local merchants-provided you prove yourselves deserving of it in demonstrating your willingness to cooperate with your patrons by keeping them posted, not only as well as the catalogue houses, but BETTER

EDUCATION IS THE FOUNDATION OF ALL PROGRESS and education takes on many forms nowadays. In this regard,

Advertising Holds the Center of the Commercial Stage

If you have something new, the people will not know about it if you keep it hidden within the four walls of your store. If you inaugurate a (new "wrinkle" in your service, it is for the benefit of your patron's and they should know about it. If you have stock on hand for which you would gladly share the ordinary profit with your patrons, in order to turn over your capital to a better advantage, you can't accomplish this unless you "let the people in on it." They are the ones who are necessary for this advantageous cooperation.

Times have advanced beyond the age when retail merchants could rely upon the "month-to-mouth" method of advertising.
